AROMA VELA

In addition to an aesthetic appearance, the aromatic value of a candle is a plus that may help you boost all types of environments. For example, we can use a candle with a scent of eucalyptus in a setting of a relaxing massage at a spa. Candles are the perfect touch for a wide range of different scenarios. For many people, lighting a candle provides a sense of peace and, along with the aroma, takes them to state of relaxation and wellness.

PRESTATIONS

A candle provides a touch of sensuality, relaxation and decoration to any event, table, spa, room, home etc. Marketing Olfativo offers this personalized merchandising product to its clients for sale or for them to give as a gift.

TECHNICAL FEATURES

According to specific measures, the composition and fragrance concentration of the candles, the olfactory notes will be more or less evident. The individual study of the wax composition and essence compatibility of the candle is very important for its appropriate combustion, resulting in a pleasant smell.
